ORDER GRANTING STAY

Now before me is a request by counsel for the City of St. Louis, Mo., that I stay implementation of the final decision in the above-captioned matter (in which the City is ordered to pay a sum of money to the U.S. Department of Labor) pending direct review of that decision by the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit.

Upon consideration of the foregoing, it is ordered that --

1. *Implementation of the above-referenced decision IS STAYED pending review of it by the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit; and that

2. The stay IS CONDITIONED UPON submission by the City to the U.S. Department of Labor (USDOL), within 30 days of the issuance of this Order, of a written agreement by the City that, within 30 days after the Court of Appeals' issuance of a decision favorable to the USDOL, the City shall pay to the USDOL in cash the principal amount determined by the Court to be owed to the USDOL, and such further amount as may accrue in interest during the pendency of said review, at the interest rate(s) which the USDOL would normally charge for delayed payment of the principal amount during that period.
